

NSPE Enterprise Membership

International Truck and Engine Corporation® (International) is Indiana's first Enterprise Member company, sponsoring 20 engineering employees in NSPE / ISPE and Anthony Wayne Chapter, Northeast Region. Fourteen of the twenty 'Enterprise' members are new to NSPE / ISPE.

Navistar International Corporation, Warrenville, Illinois celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2002 and is the parent company of (International). Navistar has 16,500 employees worldwide, with 1,236 located at its Fort Wayne, Indiana Truck Engineering and Development Center, and Truck Reliability Center offices. Of these, 295 are direct engineering staff. Diesel engine engineering and development offices are in Melrose Park, Illinois.

(International - Truck) products are distributed in the US, Canada and Mexico and (International) is the market leader in the commercial, on-highway truck industry with 42% of class 6 – 7 vehicles. In the combined medium and heavy vehicle class, 6 - 8, (International) has a combined 26% of the US – Canadian market. (International - Engine) is a world leader in the production and sales of mid-range diesel engines in the 160 to 300 horsepower range.

International's 'Enterprise' Members
Ft Wayne, IN